

Supplier Code of Conduct Acknowledgement

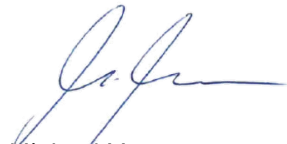

Dear Valued Customer,

Thank you for your inquiry regarding Amphenol's responsible sourcing activities. As outlined in our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, Environmental Policy, Healthy and Safety Policy, Global Human Rights Policy, Sustainable Procurement Policy, Supplier Code of Conduct and Supplier Responsible Labor Policy, Amphenol Corporation ("Amphenol"), including its affiliates and subsidiaries, is committed to treating everyone in our business and supply chains with dignity and respect, while promoting sustainability and continually improving product quality and reliability. Amphenol holds its direct suppliers and operations accountable to meeting the expectations outlined in these documents.

We believe that the relevant principles and concepts contained in Amphenol's policies and codes meet the expectations of our customers. Although we are unable to provide formal agreement to the specific language contained in your document, we can assure you that we are committed to conducting our business ethically and have high expectations that our suppliers will act in a way that is consistent with our culture and values. Further information can be found in our annual Sustainability Report and Anti-Human Trafficking & Slavery Statement.

We are also a member of the Responsible Business Alliance (RBA), the world's largest industry coalition dedicated to corporate responsibility in global supply chains. We continue to actively monitor the RBA's Responsible Labor Initiative (RLI) and Responsible Minerals Initiative (RMI), which are multi-industry, multi-stakeholder initiatives focused on ensuring that the rights of global supply chain workers who may be vulnerable to forced labor are consistently respected and promoted.

Sincerely,

Michael Maage
General Manager of Amphenol Precision Optics GmbH
